Auburn Nazarene
Organized 1944

It is an honor to give my second report on behalf of Auburn Church of the Nazarene. We are experiencing wonderful days marked by excitement and positive momentum, and most importantly, by a spirit of genuine unity, and there continues to be a deep sense that the Holy Spirit is bringing together a great new hour for ACN.

Together we have committed our life and future to a simple and straightforward vision: to glorify God in all we do, and to produce faithful disciples in our hour. We believe we can do these things only to the degree that we imitate the life and spirit of the One who reveals God's life to us, and it is to this One that we order our worship and organize our call to faithful living. In everything we do, we seek to frame ourselves in the life of Christ and the continued work of God in our midst.
